Famine in the Island of Madeira.

A GARD FROM THE AMERICAN AND FOREIGN CHRISTIAN UNION.

The Christian public will remember that, a few years The Christian public will remember that, a few years since, several hundred men, women, and shidien, natives of this island, in consequence of having read, and enterowing to ebey the Holy Scriptures, were subjected to the most cruel persecution by the Romish priests there, who, assisted by the civil power, imprisoned many of them, stript them of their little all, and finally drove them into exile. This society expended $12,000 in rescuing a large part of them from starvation, clothing, and bringing them to this country, where they are now settled comfortably, in the State of Slinois, highly respected and most worthy citizens. It appears from the letter of Archbishop Hughes, read to the committee in behalf of the sufferers from famine in the island, that he is now in correspondence with these priests, and is moved to contribute $60 to the fund. We submit that, under the circumstances, this contribution is rather small, and would now propose to the "Most Reverend" that he increase it a $600, being the amount which he contributed to the fund in aid of the late attempted revolution in Irekand. Don his doing this, one of the members of our Board stands ready to make up the amount to $1,000, which will give substantial aid to the starving people.

Dr. Debay's Nioukrenelec.—Those of the most eminent aliopathic physicians in New York, who have for some time past been using the Nioukrenelec, might, if they would, give the public some very startling facts in its favor. Two of them declined, by saying that if they recommended anything of the kind to the public, they would forfeit their positions, by having their names "crased from the books of the society." The other did not like to have his "name go to the world connected with such a low business as hair-growing." The loctor wears a wig.—of the hugest dimensions—a perfect Pandora's box of grease and fat. People of his "caste" of mind, rarely, if ever, have any hair of their own at the age of seventy. The moment they begin to grow bald, they run the usual round of orthodox remedies, until the last fiber has been eradicated; leading many to suppose, from the look of things, that their progenitors must have entered into a combination to ruin the barbers and razor manufacturers. Such people remind us of the case of the lady of an apothecary in Broadway, who tinkered with various chemicals, until she utterly ruined her hair—in fact, brought about total baldness; and now, although quite a young woman, wears a wig. Nature never intended it. As a preventive and remedy for affections of the scalp in children, Bebay's Nioukrenoleo has never had its equal; while it may be used, without the least healtation, on the head of the most delicate infant. It is delightfully cooling to the scalp, and lays the foundation of a magnificent head of hair. For sale by E. French, Bookseller, 135 Nassau street.

A T A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN
Mard Committee of the Fifteenth ward, held at Constitution Hall, No. 650 Broadway, on Thursday evening, January 27, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, a secret organization, consisting of a few selfelected and irresponsible persons, styled Sachems, have arrogated to themselves the power of deciding upon the qualifications of delegates to the Democratic Republican General Committee, and have, in accordance with such most impertinent and unprecedented pretension, excluded
the delegates of this ward from Tammany Hall; therefore, Resolved, That the above act of dictation doserves, as it will receive, the universal condemnation and contempt
of the democratic party of the city of New York.

Resolved, That the democracy of the Fifteenth ward approve and will sustain the course pursued by our delegates, Richard Schell, John Wheeler and Charles D.
Mend, and the organization of the Democratic Republican General Committee of the city of New York of which Thomas J. Barr is Chairman, and that we will not recognise the acts of the spurious and self-constituted Sachems' committee.

Resolved, That the infamous and outrageous pretencognise the acts of the spurious and outrageous pretenchems' committee.

Resolved, That the infamous and outrageous pretensions of a treasonable faction to speak and act for the patriotic democracy who have stood firmly by the Union and constitution during the recent years of trial, will never be recognized by those to whom principle is dearer than the spoils of office.

Resolved, That the complacent colleagues of those selfcalled democrats who have hitherto pretended to act with the true Union democracy of the State, deserves the same consideration with their treasonable associates.

elected as officers for 1853.—William MGraw, Chairman;
C. B. Woodruff, Edward Burke, Secretaries; Wm. Woodruff, Treasurer. On motion, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we approve of the course pursued by our delegates elect to the General Committee, in not presenting their credentials to a bogus committee, formed by a secret clique, to represent the democracy of the city and county of New York.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to support and recognise no other delegates than those who were honestly elected as members of the General Committee, of which Benjamin A. Guyre, Anthony J. McCarty, E. Peter, and
B. Warts, were duly elected as such delegates.

Resolved, That we will recognise no other ward committee, (and know that the democracy of the ward will recognise no other.) than the Ward Committee elected on the same ticket that the aforesaid named delegates to the General Committee were duly elected.

Resolved, That we approve of the sentiments contained in the protest read by Alderman Thomas J. Barr, before the Sachems, and recommend its circulation among the democracy of the city.

CLOTHING.

THE SONG OF THE SHIRT HAS IMMORTALIZED Hood;
Labor shouts forth his praise to the welkin;
And could we frame as glorious a ditty, we would Touch our harps in approval of ELKINS;
For the shirts made by Elkins, in cheapness surpass, As in beauty and it, all the others;
And though beauty and worth seldom couple; alas!
Yet they meet in this case like two brothers.
